

Graubünden/Vorarlberg

A river runs regionally

What makes an architectural region? The Vorarlberg and Graubünden architectural communities are only a short distance apart and share many similarities and parallels. But there are also distinctive, and major differences. Why?

Why there and not elsewhere? Why this and not something else?

Fourth Door Review goes travelling the Alpine mountain passes and the Rhine valley looking for answers.

map Peter Cole

photos Hans Peter Schüss, Ralph Feiner, Oliver Lauenstein

photos Oliver Lauenstein (2), Ralph Feiner, Thomas Dreier

